What is PIP?

A Christian based family outreach for all of Central Texas celebrating youth and connecting community. PIP Youth of Purpose Celebration (PIP-YPC) is an annual youth ministry event that originated in Austin, Texas in 1999. The event is every year the Saturday after Easter from 11am-5pm in Austin, Texas. Consisting of a live stage, booths, family activities and free food.

Who is PIP for?

PIP is designed for children, teens, college students and their families. PIP encourages and supports cross-denominational, cross-generational and cross-racial collaborations within the Austin and surrounding communities. A variety of churches, businesses and community organizations host PIP every year.

What will I find on the day of the event?

PIP showcase singing, dancing, acting and other forms of celebration. Informational booths from non-profit organizations and local small business owners.
